Re: United States v. Victor Colon
Indictment 22 Cr. 293 (JPO)
Motion to Permanently Return Passport

Dear Judge Oetken:

Mr. Colon has been sentenced in this case and on February 5, 2024 began serving his sentence. Pre-trial Services has advised that a court order is required to allow them to permanently release his U.S. Passport to his family, if no such motion is made, it would be returned to U.S. Department of State. Accordingly, it is respectfully requested that U.S. Pre-trial Services is directed to return Mr. Colon's U.S. Passport to his father, Carlos Colon.

Thank you,

/s
Christopher Booth

Granted.
Pretrial Services is hereby directed to release custody of Mr. Colon's passport and return it to his father, Carlos Colon.
So ordered.
